What's Hot

RSVP seeks out the coolest new ideas to make sure your creative event is the hottest ticket in town

Marketing mix Mixology expert Funkin has just launched its 7pm Private Cocktail Club. The concept will give party guests the opportunity to become real-life cocktail stars. Each will be taught in a cocktail masterclass in a one-to-one tuition session, with expert bartenders including Colin Appiah and Merlin Griffiths. The three-hour session will teach participants the basics of cocktail making, insider knowledge on the best spirits, glassware and equipment, and a host of bar tricks and tips. The package will cost £300.
