the diary

If you believe the weather forecast, we're in for a hot hot summer. About time too. Not wanting to jinx it or anything but here are some must-have's to maximise enjoyment out of the sunshine:

- 9 times out of 10 you take the easier option to buy ice lollies from the shop. But why not choose the healthier, more fun option; reduce the amount of e-numbers children are consuming by letting them make their own ice lollies. For only £4.15, go to www.deuisine.co.uk and check out the multi-coloured lolly makers.
- There's nothing like a cocktail or two to get you into holiday mode this summer. Thanks to Funkin you needn't leave the comfort of your home to get a cocktail as good as one made by a top mixologist. Just add the advised spirit and mix! Perfect for impromptu drinks parties. www.funkin.co.uk
- Lastly, treat your garden to a mini makeover with asda.com. For £100 you can get all of the following: a Flymo mini trim and Microlite mower, a composter, a hozelock multi-purpose hose set, a sprinkler and a round charcoal bbq. Talk about pampering!
